Division Two Proposed
By-Laws Revision

Psychology, the APA and Division Two have undergone considerable development since our Divisional By-Laws were first written. We have, from time to time, made minor amendments to accommodate necessary activities of the Division. There is now a need not only to make our By-Laws consistent with those of the APA, but also to make them reflect and formalize the many important functions which the Division performs. For these purposes, we submit to the membership a series of proposed amendments. Published below are sections of the current By-Laws and proposed amended sections.

Changes range from editorial revisions to remove language which might be termed sex specific, to deletion of Sections Ten and Eleven of Article II. This deletion reflects the fact that the APA now fulfills the functions previously served by Division Affiliate status. Particular attention is called to the revision of our statement of Division purposes. In the revised statement we depict more accurately the activities in which our Division has been engaged for some years. The addition of two new standing committees, the Committee on Undergraduate Education and the Committee on Graduate and Continuing Education, will provide a means for increased accomplishment of our purposes.

A mail ballot, on which members may approve or disapprove the proposed amendments, will be distributed to voting members of the Division.

Edward H. Loveland
By-Laws Revision Chairman

Change ARTICLE I, Section 2
FROM: 2. The purposes of the organization shall be: to encourage research on the teaching of psychology, to facilitate the communication of research and experience in teaching, and to apply the results of research and considered experience to the benefit of the teaching profession.

TO: 2. The purposes of the organization shall be: to foster superior education in and to promote excellence in the teaching of psychology, wherever it occurs; to facilitate the execution, communication and application of research on the teaching of psychology; to disseminate information on curricula, methods, and equipment designed to facilitate such teaching; and to foster continuing education programs directed toward improvement of the teaching of psychology.

Change ARTICLE II, Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 10 and 11
FROM: 1. The Division shall consist of three classes of members: Fellows, Associates, and Members.
2. Fellows, Associates, and Members shall be persons who qualify for fellowship, associateship, and membership respectively, according to Article II, Sections 3, 5, and 6 of the By-Laws of the APA.
3. Fellows and Associates shall be persons who are actively engaged in, or interested in, the teaching of psy-

Chology. Members shall be persons who are, or have been actively engaged in teaching psychology in a recognized institution.
4. Members shall be elected by a majority vote of the members present and voting at any annual meeting upon nomination by the Executive Committee of the Division, following action by the Membership Committee of the Division.
10. In addition to the regular membership classes, there shall be a class of Divisional Affiliates who shall be Foreign Affiliates of the Association, Members of the Student Journal Group, community college or high school teachers of psychology, or other interested persons who are not eligible for membership in the Association. Divisional Affiliates shall be recognized as such, without election, by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Division, upon submission of evidence of their Association status and notification from the Association that Divisional dues and special assessments, if any, have been paid. Division Affiliates shall not represent themselves as Fellows, Members, or Associates of the Division.
11. Divisional Affiliates will receive the publications which the Division may at times distribute to the membership, may serve on special committees of the Division, and may participate, without vote, in Divisional business meetings.

TO: 1. The Division shall consist of three classes of members: Fellows, Members, and Associates.
2. Fellows, Members, and Associates shall be persons who qualify for fellowship, membership and associateship respectively, according to Article II, Sections 3, 5, and 6, of the By-Laws of the APA.
3. Fellows, Members, and Associates shall be persons who are, or have been, engaged in activities directly related to the purposes of the Division.
4. Members shall be elected by majority vote of the voting Members of the Division present and voting at any annual meeting upon nomination of the Executive Committee of the Division, following action by the Division Membership Committee.
10. (Delete entire section)
11. (Delete entire section)

Change ARTICLE III, Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8
FROM: 1. The officers of the organization shall be a Divisional President, a Divisional President-Elect, a Secretary-Treasurer, and two or more Divisional Representatives to the Council of Representatives, as provided for in Article IV of the By-Laws of the APA. By virtue of his election, the Secretary-Treasurer shall also be considered elected as one of the Divisional Representatives for the term of his office.
2. The officers of the Division shall be Fellows, Members, or Associates of the Division and of the APA and shall be elected by and only by members (Fellows, Associates, and Members) of the Division and of the APA.
3. The term of office for the Divisional President shall be one year, for the Divisional President-Elect one year, and for the Secretary-Treasurer three years. The terms of Divisional Representatives shall be governed by the provisions of the By-Laws of the American Psychological Association.
4. It shall be the duty of the Divisional President to preside at all meetings, to act ex-officio as Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Division, and to exercise supervision over the affairs of the Division with the approval of the Executive Committee, and to perform such other duties as are incident to his office or may properly be required of him by vote of the Executive Committee.

5. It shall be the responsibility of the Divisional President-Elect to serve as a member of the Executive Committee and to perform the duties of the Divisional President in the event of the absence or incapacity of the latter. The Divisional President-Elect shall become the Divisional President upon the expiration of the term of the latter.

6. It shall be the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer to issue calls and notices of meetings and of nominations of officers, or to arrange with the Central Office for the issuing of such announcements; to keep the records of the Division; to cooperate with the Executive Secretary of the APA; to have custody of all funds and property of the Division; to collect any special dues that may be voted in accordance with Article VIII, Section 1 of these By-Laws and to make disbursements as authorized by the Executive Committee; to serve as a member of the Divisional Executive Committee, and ex-officio as a member of the Program and Election Committees. He shall also serve as a Divisional Representative to the Council of the American Psychological Association.

7. It shall be the duty of the Divisional Representatives to perform the duties and accept the responsibilities specified in Article III of the By-Laws of the American Psychological Association. The Representatives shall also serve as members of the Divisional Executive Committee.

8. In case of the death, incapacity, or resignation of any of these officers (excepting the Divisional President) the Executive Committee shall by majority vote elect a successor to serve until the next annual meeting of the Division. If a candidate for office withdraws, dies, or is incapable of serving after the ballooning has taken place but before the outcome of the election has been announced, the Election Committee shall declare elected the candidate receiving the next largest number of votes in that category.

9. In case of the death, incapacity, or resignation of any of these officers (excepting the Divisional President) the Executive Committee shall by majority vote elect a successor to serve until the next annual meeting of the Division. If a candidate for office withdraws, dies, or is incapable of serving after the ballooning has taken place but before the outcome of the election has been announced, the Election Committee shall declare elected the candidate receiving the next largest number of votes in that category.

TO: 1. The officers of the Division shall be a Divisional President, a President-Elect, a Past President, a Secretary-Treasurer, and one or more Division Representatives to the Council of Representatives, as provided for in Article IV of the By-Laws of the Association, the chairpersons of the Standing Committees, and the Editor of Teaching of Psychology.

2. By virtue of his or her election, the Secretary-Treasurer shall also be considered as the elected principal Divisional Representative for the term of his or her office.

3. The officers of the Division shall be Fellows or Members of the Division and of the APA and shall be elected by and only by the Fellows, Members and voting Associates of the Division and the Association.

4. The term of office for the Divisional President shall be one year, for the Divisional President-Elect one year, and for the Secretary-Treasurer three years. The terms of Divisional Representatives shall be governed by the provisions of the By-Laws of the American Psychological Association.

5. It shall be the duty of the Divisional President to preside at all meetings, to act ex-officio as Chairperson of the Executive Committee of the Division, and to exercise supervision over the affairs of the Division, with the approval of the Executive Committee, and to perform such other duties as are incident to his or her office or may properly be required of him by vote of the Executive Committee.

6. It shall be the responsibility of the Divisional President-Elect to serve as a member of the Executive Committee and to perform the duties of the Divisional President in the event of the absence or incapacity of the latter. The Divisional President-Elect shall become the Divisional President upon the expiration of the term of the latter.

7. It shall be the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer to issue calls and notices of meetings and of nominations of officers, or to arrange with the Central Office for the issuing of such announcements; to keep the records of the Division; to cooperate with the Executive Secretary of the APA; to have custody of all funds and property of the Division; to collect any special dues that may be voted in accordance with Article VIII, Section 1 of these By-Laws and to make disbursements as authorized by the Executive Committees; to serve as a member of the Divisional Executive Committee, and ex-officio as a member of the Program and Election Committees. The Secretary-Treasurer shall also serve as a Divisional Representative to the Council of the American Psychological Association.

8. It shall be the duty of the Divisional Representatives to perform the duties and accept the responsibilities specified in Article III of the By-Laws of the American Psychological Association. The Representatives shall also serve as members of the Divisional Executive Committee.

9. In case of the death, incapacity, or resignation of any of these officers (excepting the Divisional President) the Executive Committee shall by majority vote elect a successor to serve until the next annual meeting of the Division. If a candidate for office withdraws, dies, or is incapable of serving after the ballooning has taken place but before the outcome of the election has been announced, the Election Committee shall declare elected the candidate receiving the next largest number of votes in that category.

Change ARTICLE IV, Section 1

FROM: 1. There shall be an Executive Committee of the Division consisting of the Division President, the immediate Divisional Past President, the Divisional President-Elect, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Division, the Representatives of the Council of Representatives of the American Psychological Association and the Chairman of the standing committees.

TO: 1. There shall be an Executive Committee of the Division consisting of the Division President, the immediate Divisional Past President, the Divisional President-Elect, the Secretary-Treasurer of the Division, the Representatives to the Council of Representatives of the American Psychological Association and the Chairpersons of the standing committees.

Vol. 7 No. 2 April 1980

129
Change ARTICLE V, Sections 1, and 6
FROM: 1. The officers of the Division shall be elected by a majority vote of the members voting on a mail ballot.
6. Officers shall assume office on the first day following the close of the annual meeting at which they are elected and shall hold office until their successors are elected and assume office in their stead. If an officer shall fail to accept his election, his place shall be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

TO: 1. The officers of the Division shall be elected by majority vote of Fellows, Members, and voting Associates of the Division, voting on a mail ballot.
6. Officers shall assume office at the close of the annual meeting at which they are elected and shall hold office until their successors are elected and assume office in their stead. If an officer shall fail to accept election, his or her place shall be filled by majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Change ARTICLE VII, Section 3; add new sections 7, and 8
FROM: 3. There shall be three standing committees: the Membership Committee, the Program Committee, and the Election Committee.

TO: 3. There shall be five standing committees: The Membership Committee, The Program Committee, The Election Committee, The Committee on Undergraduate Education, the The Committee of Graduate and Continuing Education.

ADD: 7. The Committee on Undergraduate Education shall consist of three members appointed by the Executive Committee, each member of whom shall be designated as Chairperson. Each member shall serve a three year term, except that initial appointments shall be staggered to permit orderly rotation of membership. The Committee shall consider, and report to the Executive Committee on, matters relating to graduate and continuing education in psychology. Special subcommittees may, with the approval of the Executive Committee, be appointed to consider specific aspects of the Committee's charge.

ADD: 8. The Committee on Graduate and Continuing Education shall consist of three members appointed by the Executive Committee, one of whom shall be designated as Chairperson. Each member will serve a three year term, except that initial appointments shall be staggered to permit orderly rotation of membership. The Committee shall consider, and report to the Executive Committee on, matters relating to graduate and continuing education in psychology. Special subcommittees may, with the approval of the Executive Committee, be appointed to consider specific aspects of the Committee's charge.

Change ARTICLE IX—Amendments
FROM: ARTICLE IX—Amendments 1. The Division at any annual meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, or by a majority of the members of the Division voting on a mail ballot, may adopt such amendments to these By-Laws as have been (a) presented and read at the preceding annual meeting, or (b) mailed to the last known post office address of each member or published in the Divisional Newsletter, two months prior to the final vote on the proposed amendments.

TO: ARTICLE IX—Division Publications
1. The official publication of the Division shall be Teaching of Psychology.

Change ARTICLE X—Enabling Action
FROM: ARTICLE X—Enabling Action
1. The Division shall be considered formed and these By-Laws shall be considered in effect when they are accepted by a majority vote of those Fellows and Associates of the APA who elect membership in this Division in their registration with the APA in 1946.

TO: ARTICLE X—Amendments
1. The Division at any annual meeting by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, or by a majority of the members of the Division voting on a mail ballot, may adopt such amendments to these By-Laws as have been (a) presented and read at the preceding annual meeting, or (b) mailed to the last known post office address of each member or published in an appropriate Divisional publication, two months prior to the final vote on the proposed amendments.

Add ARTICLE XI—Enabling Action
ADD: 1. The Division shall be considered formed and these By-Laws shall be considered in effect when they are accepted by a majority vote of those Fellows and Associates of the APA who elect membership in this Division in their registration with the APA in 1946.