Assistant Professor, Psychology
(Tenure-stream appointment)

The School of Behavioural and Social Sciences at Brescia University College invites applications for a tenure-stream appointment in any area of Psychology at the Assistant Professor level beginning July 1, 2022. We are seeking candidates with a strong commitment to excellent undergraduate teaching in a liberal arts environment and a dedication to collaborating with undergraduates in research. Preference will be given to candidates with a demonstrated ability to teach research methods and statistics at the undergraduate level.

Faculty members at Brescia are expected to be active researchers and to participate in departmental and university committees and activities. Each academic year, the successful candidate will teach 3 courses in one term and 2 in the other and will supervise honours thesis students in psychology. Candidates who have experience working with a diverse range of people, and who can contribute to the climate of inclusivity at Brescia are encouraged to identify their experiences and potential contributions in their cover letter.

The successful candidate will have a Ph.D. in psychology or a closely related field and university-level teaching experience. The preferred candidate will also demonstrate a defined research agenda including a record of publications and an independent program of research that can involve undergraduates.

Applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statement of research interests, and teaching portfolio, and should arrange for three letters of reference to be sent directly via email to Dr. Anne Barnfield, Interim Academic Dean, Brescia University College, bucdean@uwo.ca. The deadline for receipt of applications is January 3, 2022, or until the position is filled.

Brescia University College, a Catholic university college affiliated with Western University, is Canada’s only women’s university and provides instruction to over 1,400 students. We are a small university in a beautiful setting with a strong sense of mission and a vibrant campus community. In addition, we have access to resources at the much larger Western University nearby. We welcome students, faculty, and staff from all faiths and backgrounds. Information about Brescia may be found on the university website: www.brescia.uwo.ca.

Brescia University College is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and we encourage women, members of racialized groups/visible minorities, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, persons of any sexual orientation, and persons of any gender identity or gender expression to apply. We invite applications from all qualified individuals, however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities throughout the recruitment process. If you require accommodations for interviews or other meetings, please contact Human Resources at bucareer@uwo.ca.
Effective September 7, 2021, all employees and visitors to campus are required to comply with Western's COVID-19 Vaccination Policy.

Brescia University College campus is situated on the traditional lands of the Anishinaabeg, Haundenosaunee, Lūnaapéewak and Attawandaron peoples. This territory falls under the London Township Treaty and Sombra Treaty 1796, and the Dish with One Spoon Wampum.
